Married, on the 8th inst. at the residence of the bride's mother on Sand Hill, Mr. Walter Winkler and Miss Cora Tester, Eld. J. T. Turpin officiating. A long and happy life to you both.

Eld. J. T. Turpin failed to go to Macedonia Saturday on account of a portion of the road over which he had to travel being guarded to prevent anyone from going into or out of the small-pox districts.

The building that is to be put up at Louisville, Ky., for the Confederate Reunion will be 165 x 200 feet and consists of a large rectangle, to each corner of which is attached a square pavilion. The entrance, which is to be at the head of a broad flight of steps, is made through five wide doors into a vestibule seventy-five feet long. Through this vestibule, seventy-five feet long. Through this vestibule, by five similar doors, the main auditorium is reached.

At each end of the vestibule will be the stairways reaching the first and second galleries.

The first floor is to consist of a great nave 175 feet long, fifteen feet wide, with the central aisle bearing monthly galleries, opposite the entrance, the committee rooms will occupy the space at the end of the aisles to the left and right of the stage. Toilet rooms, cloak rooms, etc., will be provided for near the stage, and under the stairs at each side of the front.

The greatest distance of any seat in the auditorium from the speaker's stand will be 120 feet. There will be two galleries, either of which may be entirely separated from the other, if desired.

The house will be built with upright joints, stripped for the main body, and with pavilions covered with shiplap boards. It will be whitened on the outside and tinted on the inside.

The roof will have a waterproof covering. The windows will be movable, many of them with flags used as pannels, thereby producing a fine effect.

The stage will seat 200; the first floor, 3,600; the sub-gallery, 1,250; the main gallery, 2,175, making a total of 7,225 seats. By placing chairs in the aisles, the total seating capacity will be 10,000.

That capable architect, H. P. McDonald, a Confederate veteran, drew the plans, and will have charge of its construction.

Opposes Pistol Toting.

Col. Jack Chinn, while in New York the other day, delivered himself to a reporter of the World News:

"My place in the Union without a gun. I feel safe and never carry a pistol or the valise when I strike that road. I always carry a pistol in China and other towns. But I am opposed to the practice. It is not pleasant one, and it is not good for the State. If they would let me draw up a law I would stop it."

"How would I do it? In the first place I would legalize dueling, but I would make it a capital offense for two men to fight within 24 hours after a quarrel. That would make them sleep on the proposition, and there would be a very few fights. I would also make it an offense punishable by ten years in the penitentiary for any man to carry a concealed weapon or draw it in a public place. We have a law here against carrying weapons, but it is not effective. I want to say that 99 cases out of 100, where a man is killed in a street fight here it is nothing more than assassination. One man has everything on his side and the other has nothing. Do you suppose I have been comfortable during the past week or so, with some one liable to shoot me down at any time, as they did Bill Garber? Not a bit of it. But I want to say that I would not kill a man for almost anything on earth. The newspapers of this country have painted me as a bad man, ready and eager to make trouble at any time. But this is wrong. I have a heart in my bosom and I love my fellow man. I would rather go to my own grave than cause some mother or wife to weep over the grave of a son or husband killed by my hand."

The House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce decided by a vote of 8 to 5 in favor of the laying of a Pacific cable by a private company and the payment of an annual subsidy for 20 years by the government for the use of the cable for government messages.

A bill has been introduced in the Kentucky Legislature providing for a tax of $1 on all dogs, to be paid into a fund to reimburse sheep owners losing sheep through depredations of dogs. The money is to be collected by the sheriff and the surplus over and above $50 at the end of each year is to go into the school fund. The proposed law is similar to one in effect in Indiana.

In the recent disturbance at Frankfort a timely order was issued by the mayor, closing, for awhile, all the saloons in that city. The correspondents of the Associated Press recorded the capital as "dry" for a season, and in the political crisis the city officials were wise enough to see that open saloons meant increasing trouble. Unfortunately, however, the wisdom of the wise is oft times of short duration. Has it ever occurred to these same officials that that which insures peace at one time, might promote peace and prosperity at other times? The flask and concealed weapon have already done enough to degrade Kentucky, and it is useless to expect anything but crime and disgrace when young men, copying the example of their elders, pocket their revolver as though it were a part of their morning toilet, and frequent the saloons with habitual drinkers. Every court day brings a fresh disgrace to our community. It is a day when ladies must keep off the street, and when those who have been out of town must hasten home before nightfall, to escape the fright of meeting reckless drivers who leave town intoxicated, and the busiest men have men behind the bar, and never... well, it does go that—and shame and disgrace and and prison and almshouses, intimately graves besides. In Morehead the vote of one precinct in the county seat brings this disgrace upon the whole community. Three precincts of Harrodsburg for prohibition, with the solid vote of the county precincts behind them must suffer, because one precinct wills the maintenance of the saloon. It is to be devoutly hoped that the bill pending the action of our General Assembly, giving the county and not the precinct the control, may be passed, and that the Governor's signature may make the bill a law.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

An exchange has the following in regard to the bustle coming back into style: "When the daily toil is over and the sun is going down, you are ready then to read the news that is going on in town. If you miss the daily papers, here's a hint, 'twill make you smile: perhaps you will find it on your daughter, for the bustle's back in style. When you wash your face in soupsuds and you are looking for a towel, while the soap is getting in your eyes, you start to swear and howl; wipe your face upon your sleeve and remember all the while that the towel is hard to locate since the bustle's back in style. Now, there's no use in getting angry and it does no good to swear; if your Sunday shirt is missing and you've nothing clean to wear, try your hardest to look pleasant, do your best to wear a smile, and remember when you miss things, that the bustle's back in style."

A child feels that life is worth living when it is allowed to drive without some grown-up holding the reins back of it.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

BY REV. C. W. CLAY.

Winfield, W. Va., voted no whisky by a majority of 29 votes.

Christ loved and prayed for his enemies. Men abuses his.

Rev. J. P. Bowry, of Ark., has assisted in a successful meeting at Georgetown, Ky.

The M. E. Church has raised $1,780,515.00 to date on its 20th century thank offering.

More than $55,000,000 was given for educational purposes in the United States in 1899. May it increase in 1900 four fold.

The Religious Review of Reviews, has been consolidated with the Watchword and Truth of Boston, Robert Cameron, editor.

When Christ met a person or company of persons, he talked to them of things eternal, while man usually talks about his neighbors.

The city prosecutor of Chicago, who is by no means a temperance fanatic, gives out that there were 82,000 arrests in that city during 1899, and that about 62,000 of them were drunk when arrested.

Elder Lloyd Darsie, brother of Elder George Darsie, who has been pastor of the Frankfort Christian church for about 20 years, will succeed Auditor Sweeny as pastor of the Paris Christian church.

Miss Helen Gould, daughter of the famous tight fisted multi millionaire, has recently contributed $5,000 to the Berea College endowment fund. This is now the wealthiest and best equipped college in Kentucky.

Morehead has three churches and three saloons. Last year the pastors of the three churches were paid a total salary of $300. The amount of business done by the saloons is put at $10,000. Quite a contrast, is it not?—Farmer's Friend.

While we doubt a part of the above statement, it should have been added that our Christian friends have, also, had a mission school in that city for a number of years, paying something like $1,500 per annum for missionary teachers to educate the children of the town and county.

Our friend Rev. T. R. Best, of Bradenton, Fla., has received and accepted a call as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Fulton.

You will never be sorry For living a pure life. For obeying your parents. For being kind to the poor. For looking before leaping. For hearing before judging. For thinking before speaking. For hearing clean thoughts. For standing by your principles. For being generous to an enemy. For closing your ears to gossip. For being courteous as a king.—Watchman and Truth.

The women of the Methodist church hope to raise $75,000 for Foreign missions. The income of the church's missionary society last year reached a high water mark—$1,300,000. There was a missionary collection taken at Central Union church in Honolulu amounting to $29,450. This is a country that was a heathen land less than 75 years ago; and yet there are some folks who will say there is no good in Foreign missions.

There were two saloons in Manila when it was captured by the U. S. army and navy, and in an attempt to regulate the traffic, General Otis now has 304. Local option may have made a few failures, but none so stupendous as this one.

This Paper Farm Journal
One Year 5 Years

We want to get 500 new subscribers to our paper, and are going to do it if we can; we therefore continue our arrangement with the Farm Journal by which we can send the Times and the Farm Journal five years, both for 50 cts. and we make the same offer to all old subscribers who will pay all arrearages and one year in advance.

You know what our paper is and the Farm Journal is a good—practical, progressive—a clean, honest, useful paper—full of gumption, full of sunshine, with an immense circulation among the best people everywhere. You ought to take it.

Today is Washington's birthday, a legal holiday.

Trade seems to be good with the home merchants just now.

We have had some excellent weather for fires last week at this.

T. S. McKinney was in Winchester the first of the week on business.

The livery men of Richmond have formed a combination to fix rates.

D. McKinney and James F. McKinney went to Levee yesterday on business.

Benny McKinney visited his brother, J. W. McKinney, at Levee Saturday night.

R. B. Johnson, of Right Angle, visited Benny McKinney Thursday night.

This office has had a nice little run of Joh Printing to do both this and last week.

Russell Christopher has bought of Ed King his farm where he now lives for $1,300.

Mrs. Nannie Sams will shortly move from Woodward's Creek to her farm near this place.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Eubank visited the latter's father, D. McKinney the last of the week.

If you have broom corn, don't forget that you can have some made into brooms by Dave White, the broom maker, Spoutspring, Ky.

J. W. Dawson & Bro. have bought of John Mize the body of timber on his farm and will work up same this spring and summer.

If the reader of this should chance to know of any one who is subject to attacks of bilious colic he can do him no greater favor than to tell of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It always gives prompt relief. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro., Druggists.

Mrs. Frances Elkin, of Log Lick, has been granted a pension of eight dollars per month.

J. Willmott McKinney has sold his Levee property for $1,000 and will probably move into this community.

Ned Cassity and wife were found dead in their little shanty boat, below Jackson. It is believed they were foully murdered.

The next meeting of the National Fox Hunters' Association will be held at Estill Springs where the last one was held last November.

Owing to the cold weather pastor, C. W. Clay, failed to fill his appointment at the Methodist church Saturday night and Sunday.

J. M. Lowe, of Kansas City, claims the ground on which Lexington, Ky., is built and has employed an attorney to look into the matter preparatory to bringing suit.

The deepest snow of the winter fell the last of the week, but, owing to the muddy condition of the roads when it fell, it was not very pleasant sleighing day.

W. Barnett will have son move to saw mill and has number of logs cut and ready for the saw now.

Justin Lowry moved from our midst to a farm near Rucker-ville Monday. Mr. Lowry and his estimable wife are excellent neighbors whom we regret to see move out of our community very much.

Morgan Gravett and George Gravett moved to their farm recently purchased in Clark county, Monday. The boys have secured a good farm in our sister bluegrass county, and we wish them the success their soberness and industry richly deserves.

A report has reached Richmond that a shot gun quarantine has been established by Estill county authorities against citizens of Waco, College Hill and Byebetown on account of smallpox. The situation at those places is said to critical.—Richmond Pantagraph.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Hemminie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies with number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by J. Judge Jas. H. French died at Winchester last week, aged 77 years. He was a brother of Eld. R. French.

Some contend that we have no government. Strange, isn't it? It can't be said that we are short on Governors.

Gen. H. B. Lyons will come with a large delegation from Western Kentucky to the Confederate Reunion at Louisville.

Congressman Gilbert has introduced a bill in the House appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Lawrenceburg.

The case of Attorney E. K. Wilson, for murder of a young woman at London some months ago, has been continued in the Rockcastle Circuit Court.

Cornstalks continue to increase in value. They yield cellulose, worth $400 per ton for stopping holes in battleships, fine cardboard and paper, the best foundation for dynamite, a patent cattle food, and a superior glue.

Several cases of small-pox are reported at College Hill and one in the lower end of this county. This is the first case in Estill county for a number of years. Every caution should be taken to prevent the spread of the disease. Clean up the grounds, use plenty of lime about the premises, and see that you and yours are vaccinated.

Later—Since the above was set it type the report as it regards there being a case in this county, is not credited.

An Editor's Life Saved By Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.

B. S. Edwards, Publisher of The Review, Wyant, Ill. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro., Druggists.

A subscriber wrote and asked an editor what sort of weather it would probably be next week. The editor answered: "The weather next week will probably be like your subscription to this paper." The subscriber puzzled his brain for a while to think what the editor could mean. Finally he thought of "unsettle it" and he sent the money to pay up by the next mail.—Ex.

What is a cause for gossip? Simply culture. There is a great deal of gossip that has no malignity in it. Good natured people talk about neighbors because they have nothing else to talk about. The confirmed gossip is always either malicious or ignorant. Reading is a safeguard against gossip. People who can talk of books do not have to of persons. When you see a family in which literary magazines and papers are taken you see one where there is very little gossip, so says an exchange.

The State Board of Health has no funds to assist the small-pox districts. There are thirty-five counties in the State with the dread disease.

At communion in the Georgetown Christian church, a near-sighted man dropped a nickel in the wine cup, thinking it was the contribution box.

Every discriminating person will say that The Biggle books advertised in this issue of the Times, contain a greater amount of condensed, common sense, well arranged information than any books they have seen relating to these important branches of farm industry. The price of each is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

An exchange remarks that the public schools of Frankfort are closed, it being thought best not to teach the young ideas how to shoot yet.

Eastern oil experts are at Millersburg investigating the flow of oil in a well being bored by the city for water. At a depth of 300 feet, the drill struck a flow of oil which filled two-thirds of the well.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cure make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or serious consequences. It also cures croup and is used in tens of thousands.

It cures croup, but when soon as the croaky cough will prevent the attack. Of whooping cough it liquefies tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences.

As hot as an oven,

As cold as ice,

As lively as a cricket,

As still as mice,

As tough as leather,

As dry as a chip,

As bright as a dollar,

As smart as a whip.

As wise as a serpent,

As gay as a lark,

As fat as butter,

As thin as a shark,

As fierce as a tiger,

As deaf as a post,

Sober's a deacon,

White as a ghost.

Lick as a whistle,

As high as your head,

Clear as a mirror,

As blue as the sky,

As red as a cherry,

As true as a die.

As mild as a May morning,

As merry's a grig,

As straight as a towstring,

As fat as a pig,

As true as the gospel

As long as the law—

Such a bundle of nonsense!

Now, whoever saw?

Another Lincoln Story.

Abraham Lincoln, the anniversary of whose birth has just been so widely celebrated, was once retained to defend a man charged with stealing some hams. At the trial the accused himself gave some very damaging testimony which so alarmed Mr. Lincoln that he went over to his client and told him that any further effort to clear him would be useless. The accused insisted and Mr. Lincoln made a short plea to the jury. The charge of the court was very clear and there was little doubt that the defendant would be convicted. The jury was out only five minutes and returned a verdict of "not guilty." Mr. Lincoln touched his client on the shoulder and asked him if he explained that.

"Why, yes," he replied, "elev-en o' them fellers helped eat them hams."

All women are born equal—but some of them spoil it by marrying worthless men.

The Baptist State Missionary Board has decided that the meeting of the General Assembly of the Baptists of the State will be held in June at Owensboro.
